4.4 Customer Duties and Responsibilities

4.4.1 Business Impact: Customer is required to give a full disclosure of the impact of a reported Incident on Customer at the time of the initial report of the Incident. This information directly impacts the initial priority ranking given by Bottomline to the Incident and helps Bottomline personnel to better allocate support resources.

4.4.2 Replication: Prior to reporting an Incident to the Support Centre, Customer is required (where possible) to replicate the Incident and reduce it to its simplest point of failure. If Support Centre receives Incidents that have not been reduced to their simplest point of failure, the Support Centre may return the Incident to the Customer for further analysis to avoid response times becoming significantly extended.

4.4.3 Minimum Required Information to Report an Incident: Prior to the Customer contacting the Support Centre to report an Incident, Customer must first assemble a step by step documented Incident summary that provides a full description of the Incident, including error messages and an accurate description of Customer activity at the time an Incident occurred.

Customer may also be required at the Support Centre's discretion to provide some or all of the following additional information. Failure to do so when requested may delay the progress and timely resolution of the Incident.

- (i) Test data used.
- (ii) Details of recent change activity prior to the Incident.
